Guest Speaker – Banquet

Dr. Larry Little

Dr. Little is an Associate Professor in Political Science at Winston-Salem State University. He was an alderman for the city's North Ward from 1977 to 1985. Mr. Little earned his master's degree from UNC-Greensboro while he was serving on the Board of Aldermen, and then received his law degree from Wake Forest University. Known as an outspoken political activist, he was a member of the Black Panthers from 1969 to 1977.

Dr. Little was very outspoken in the trial of Darryl Hunt. On Feb. 6 a hearing was held in which Hunt was exonerated, Now, he's enrolled in the political science courses at WSSU, many under Dr. Larry Little. Little has been an activist for and supporter of Hunt since the beginning of his trials for murder. Little opened up the forum speaking of the teenage boy he used to play basketball with at the local YMCA. Once he found out about Hunt's arrest for the murder, he decided to look into the matter.
